WHEREAS, the Declarant intends to sell, dispose of or convey the lands above described, and desires to subject the same to certain protective reservations, covenants, conditions, and restrictions (hereinafter referred to as "Conditions") between it and the acquirers and/or users of the subject real property, and

WHEREAS, the subject real property is situated and located inside the organized limits of the community of Holiday Island and in order to protect the integrity and overall scheme of development for said community the real property described above should be subjected to the conditions hereinafter set forth.

NOW THEREFORE, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That Declarant hereby certifies and declares that it has established and does hereby establish a general plan for the protection, maintenance, development and improvement of said lands, that is designed for the mutual benefit of the lands hereinabove described and the community of Holiday Island, Arkansas, and Declarant has fixed and does hereby fix the protective conditions upon, and subject to which, all or any portion of said lands shall be held, leased, sold, and/or conveyed by it as such owner, each and all of which is and are for the mutual benefit of the said lands and of each owner thereof, and of the community of Holiday Island represented by the Holiday Island Planning Commission, and shall run with the land and shall inure to and pass with each conveyance of the lands above described, and shall apply to and bind the respective successors in interest thereof, and further are, and each thereof is, imposed upon said land as a mutual equitable servitude in favor of each and every portion thereof Holiday Island Planning Commission as the dominant tenements, and in favor of Declarant, and the

COMMITTEE OF ARCHITECTURE

Declarant shall appoint a Committee of Architecture, hereinafter referred to as the "Committee", consisting of five (5) persons. Declarant shall have the further power to create and fill vacancies on the Committee.

It shall be the general purpose of this Committee to provide for maintenance of a high standard of architecture and construction in such manner as to enhance the aesthetic properties and structural soundness of the developed subdivision, consistent with this Declaration.

The Committee shall be guided by and, except when in their sole discretion good planning would dictate to the contrary, controlled by the Declaration. The Committee shall make available a copy of this Declaration to any and all owners of the subject lands upon request.

The Committee shall determine whether the Conditions contained in this Declaration are being complied with.

The Committee may adopt reasonable rules and regulations in order to carry out its duties.

SAID CONDITIONS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

That all of the lands subjected to this Declaration shall be zoned as R-1, Single Family Residential and shall be improved, used and occupied in accordance with the provisions set forth under R-1 Single Family Residential conditions of this Declaration.

That the Committee of Architecture shall require not less than One Thousand (1,000) square feet in the dwelling portion of each structure, constructed upon the lands subjected hereto.

Declarant reserves the right to convey and/or dedicate rights of way and easements over ten (10) feet to all boundary lines of the subjected lands, for public utilities, television and/or communication cables, and drainage purposes, together with the privilege to assign this right at any time, in Declarant's sole discretion; provided, however, that this reservation shall not affect any easements as shown on any recorded plat map of the subject property. This right shall run with the land for the time herein provided and as may be extended. Nothing in this instrument shall be construed as creating any obligation of declarant to extend any public utility, beyond the subject property line or any public right-of-way.

A. IMPROVEMENT STANDARDS:

1. No building, fence, patio, or other structure shall be erected, altered, added to, placed, or permitted to remain on said lands or any portion thereof until the plans showing floor areas, external design, structural details and the ground locations of the intended structure along with a plot plan have been first delivered to and approved in writing by the Committee. The Committee may require a reasonable fee prior to checking or appraising said requirements of the Uniform Building Code as published by the International Conference of Building Officials, current edition, and the requirements of the National Electrical Code, as published by the National Fire Protection Association, current edition, as a guide to sound construction and electrical installation practices.
2. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Declaration, it shall remain the prerogative and the jurisdiction of the Committee to review applications and grant approvals for exceptions to this Declaration.

Variations from these requirements and, in general, other forms of deviations from these restrictions imposed by this Declaration may be made when and only when such exceptions, variances and deviations do not in any way detract from the appearance of the premises, and are not in any way detrimental to the public welfare or to the property of other persons located in the vicinity thereof, all in the sole opinion of the Committee.
3. Said Committee shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the conduct of its proceedings and may fix the time and place for its regular meetings and for such extraordinary meetings as may be necessary, and shall keep written minutes of its meetings, which shall be open for inspection to any owner of the lands subjected heretupon the consent of any one of the members of said Committee. Said Committee shall by a majority vote elect one of its members as chairman and one of its members as secretary and the duties of such chairman and secretary shall be such as usually appertain to such offices. Any and all rules or regulations adopted by said Committee regulating its procedure may be changed by said Committee from time to time by majority vote and none of said rules or regulations shall be deemed to be any part or portion of said Covenants.

B. LAND USE - GENERAL

The following provisions shall be applicable to all property:

1. Advertising:

No sign, advertisement, billboard or advertising structure of any kind shall be erected or allowed to remain on any portion of the lands subjected hereto except as follows:

- (a) One (1) professionally made unlighted sign not to exceed six square feet in area, advertising the property for sale, lease or rent, may be erected and placed upon the property or portion thereof being sold
- (b) One (1) temporary sign not to exceed six (6) square feet in area, giving the names of the contractors, engineers, and architects may be erected during any construction period;

provided, however, that such signs must be removed within a reasonable period of time after the property is sold, leased, or construction completed, as appropriate.

2. Animals - Livestock:

Animals may be kept and maintained upon the subject property provided that no animals are kept, bred, raised or maintained for any commercial purpose, that the manner in which such animals are kept and the number of such animals kept, does not constitute a nuisance, in the sole discretion of the Committee of Architecture, and all structures erected for maintenance or housing of such animals are located and situated as to not be visible from any public right-of-way.

3. Building Exterior:

The exterior portion of all buildings shall be painted or stained immediately upon completion or shall have color mixed in the final structural application, so that all such materials shall have a finished appearance.

4. Easements:

Easements for installation and maintenance of utilities and drainage facilities are reserved as stated in this Declaration. Within these easements, no structure, planting or other material shall be placed, or permitted to remain, which may damage or interfere with the installation and maintenance of utilities, or which may change the direction of flow of drainage channels in the easements, or which may obstruct or retard the flow of water through drainage channels in the easements. The easement area of each lot and all improvements in it shall be maintained continuously by the owner of the lot, except for those improvements for which a public authority or utility company is responsible.

5. Electrical Power:

No source of electrical energy shall be brought to the property or used upon the property until the Committee has approved the plans and specifications for the erection of approved improvements upon any lot.

6. Nuisances:

No noxious or offensive activities (as determined by the Committee) shall be carried on upon any lot, nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or may become (in the opinion of the Committee) an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood.

7. Occupancy of Structures:

No structure shall be occupied or used for the purpose for which it is designed or built until the same shall have been substantially completed and a certificate to that effect shall have been issued by the Committee.

8. Plumbing:

All structures shall have complete and approved plumbing installations before occupancy. Such plumbing shall conform to the requirements of the Arkansas State Plumbing Code as a guide to sound plumbing practices.

9. Sewage Disposal:

No privately owned sewage disposal system shall be permitted upon any portion of lands covered by this Declaration.

10. Storage of Materials:

In any building project, during construction and during the period of sixty (60) days after completion, the subject lands may be used for the storage of materials used in the construction of the individual buildings in the project and for the contractor's temporary offices, including chemical toilets. Said construction period shall not exceed one hundred fifty (150) days, unless specifically approved by the Committee.

11. Storage of Tools and Trash:

The storage of tools, landscaping instruments, household effects, machinery or machinery parts, boats, trailers, empty or filled containers, boxes or bags, trash, materials, or other items that shall in appearance detract from the aesthetic values of the property, shall be so placed and stored to be concealed from view from all public rights of way. Trash for collection may be placed at the street right of way line on regular collection days for a period not to exceed eighteen (18) hours prior to pick up. Storage of junk, old, inoperative or unlicensed cars, and other unsightly objects on any portion of the subject lands is expressly prohibited.

13. Temporary Buildings:

No temporary buildings, including tents, shacks, shanties or other structures shall be erected or placed upon any lot and no temporary buildings, including basements, cellars, tents, shacks, shanties, garages, barns, other temporary outbuildings or other similar structures shall at any time be used for human habitation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, barns and outbuildings may be constructed as provided in paragraph B(2) hereof, and a trailer may be used as a residence of the owner and his family or by a contractor during construction, by or for such owner, of a permanent residence, but only after a certificate in writing has been issued by the Committee for such use and then only after the said Committee shall have approved plans and specifications for the erection of the said permanent residence. In no event shall such trailer be allowed to remain on the subject lands in excess of one hundred fifty (150) days.

14. Unnatural Drainage:

Under no circumstances shall any owner of any portion of the lands subjected hereto be permitted to deliberately alter the topographic conditions of his portion of the subject land in any way that would permit additional quantities of water from any source, other than what nature originally intended, to flow from his property onto any adjoining property or public right of way.

14. Use of Premises:

A person shall not use any premises in any land use area, which is designed, arranged or intended to be occupied or used for any purpose other than expressly permitted in this Declaration.

15. Mineral Rights:

No oil, gas and/or mineral operations of any kind, including mining or other related activities, shall be conducted or permitted on the property subjected to this Declaration at any time.

16. Radio and Television Antennae and Television Satellite Discs:

No television antennae, radio antennae, television satellite discs, or other similar devices shall be placed upon any portion of the lands subjected hereto except and unless the same is concealed from view pursuant to plans submitted to and approved by the Committee, and then only when, in the determination of the Committee, the same is not aesthetically objectionable.

R-1 SINGLE FAMILY RESIDENTIAL CONDITIONS

The following uses and regulations shall apply unless otherwise provided in these reservations.

1. Uses Permitted:

The lands subjected hereto, or any subdivided portion thereof shall not contain more than one single family dwelling. The Committee shall require not less than One Thousand (1,000) square feet in the dwelling portion of the structure.

2. Maximum Building Height:

No structure shall exceed a height of thirty (30) feet above the highest part of the lot or parcel upon which the same is to be located and constructed.

3. Minimum Setback Requirements:

Except where otherwise specifically set forth herein, which specification shall control, the following shall apply:

- (a) Front yard setbacks shall conform to a minimum depth of twenty-five (25) feet from the front property line to the nearest structural projection, including porches, but excluding eaves, overhangs, planters, or fireplaces.
- (b) A principal structure shall provide total side yards of not less than fifteen (15) feet with not less than five (5) feet on one (1) side.
- (c) A rear yard setback shall be maintained of at least twenty-five (25) feet from the property line to the nearest building line, excepting fences, walls and hedges when used as a property or boundary line separation.

4. Subdivision:

The lands subjected hereto may be subdivided by the owners thereof into a total of three (3) separate parcels. No subdivision shall occur until notice thereof shall have been given to the Committee and a plat, showing the boundaries of such subdivision shall have been filed for record in the office of the Circuit Clerk for the Western District of Carroll County, Arkansas.

These conditions shall run with the land and shall be binding upon all parties and all persons claiming under them until February 4, 2025, at which time said Conditions and covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten (10) years, unless by vote of the owners of seventy five (75) percent of the owners of said lands, and by affirmative vote of the Committee, it is agreed to change said Conditions in whole or in part,

This Declaration may be amended in whole or in part by an instrument signed by at least seventy-five (75) percent of the owners of said lands provided that such amendment shall further hereto shall be effective which shall purport to change the zoning or use of said property from its R-1 designation or which shall attempt to remove the restriction regarding subdivision of lots. Any such amendment must be recorded in the office of the Circuit Clerk and Ex-officio Recorder for Carroll County, Arkansas, in order to be effective.

In the event that any of the provisions of this Declaration conflict with any other of the provisions herein, the more restrictive of the two shall govern. If any paragraph, section, sentence, clause or phrase of the conditions and covenants herein contained shall be or become illegal, null or void, for any reason or shall be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, null or void, the remaining paragraphs, sections, sentences, clauses or phrases herein contained shall not be affected thereby.

If any owner of any portion of the lands subjected hereto or his heirs, successors, or assigns, shall violate or attempt to violate any of the conditions or covenants herein, it shall be lawful for any person or persons owning any other portion of said lands to prosecute any proceeding at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such conditions or covenants and either to prevent him or them from so doing or to recover damages or other dues for each violation. In addition, the Declarant and Committee shall have the authority to levy and collect fines for violations of these conditions in a sum not to exceed Fifty Dollars ($50.00) for any one violation, and shall have the right to prosecute any appropriate proceeding for enforcement.

In order to enhance and protect the value of the lots described herein, the right to prosecute any proceeding at law or equity against any person or person violating or attempting to violate any such conditions or covenants and either to prevent him or them from so doing or to recover damages or other dues for each violation, is also expressly reserved to the Committee and to Declarant, and their successors or assigns, whether or not Declarant is an owner of any portion of said lands.

Notwithstanding any other language herein, a breach of any of the foregoing Conditions shall not in any wise affect any valid mortgage or lien made in good faith and for value and not made for the purpose of defeating the purposes of such Conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, HOLIDAY ISLAND DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION, has caused its corporate name to be hereunto affixed by its officers thereunto duly authorized this 5th day of February, 2001.
